

Advanced Stroke Life Support, Hospital & Prehospital, Course

jointly organized by

Center for Special Operations Training, Albert Einstein Medical Center, Philadelphia

North District Hospital, Hong Kong

Tuen Mun Hospital, Hong Kong

Society for Prehospital Advanced Resuscitation and Kiss of Life, Hong Kong

Developed in 1997 by the University of Miami, Center for Research in Medical Education, this 8-hour practical hands-on course will provide doctors, nurses and prehospital care providers with a unique neurologic assessment tool ideal for both prehospital and hospital use.

Date: Course 1 - Tuesday, 19 January 2010
Course 2 – Thursday, 21 January 2010

Time: 9 am – 6 pm

Venue: North District Hospital, Sheung Shui

Topics

Stroke Facts & Rationale for Urgent Care
Major Stroke Syndromes & Stroke Mimics
Prehospital Stroke Management
ED Stroke Management
MEND Exam & Practice Sessions
Pretest, Posttest & Evaluations

Target participants: Doctors, nurses and prehospital care providers

Teaching medium: English

Certification: A certificate of successful completion will be issued by the University of Miami Center for Research in Medical Education and presented by the Albert Einstein Medical Center

Course fee: HK$1,500 in credit of “SPARK of Life”
(Early bird HK$1,400 before 1st October 2009)

Registration & Enquiry: Ms Rebecca Chan, 2683 7246

Further information: www.sparkoflife.org.hk